ADVANCE MEN ARRANGING TOUR OF GOV. BRUMBAUGH NEXT WEEK

Party Likely Will be Met at County Line and Escorted Through County

WILL REACH HERE TUESDAY

Preparations for Reception to be Made Later—Tour of State Will Last Six Days, Beginning on Monday.

W. R. D. Hall, statistician for the Pennsylvania State Highway Department for the party on the trip. He deputy state highway commissioner, were in Washington county this week making the final trip over the route to be traversed by Governor M. G. Brumbaugh and his party when they go over the state next week. Mr. Hall is providing hotel accommodations and making other arrangements for the party on the trip. He is looking reservations for about 85 persons which number will comprise the gubernatorial party. The jaunt will be made over the state in 25 or 30 automobiles. Mr. Biles is inspecting the roads on the itinerary to see if they are in fit condition for the governor's pilgrimage.

Messrs Hall and Biles were met at Beallsville, after coming from Greensburg by way of the Monongahela valley, by Alexander Gray, state highway engineer for this district. Mr. Gray accompanied them in their trip through the county. The inspection party left Harrisburg Tuesday at noon and will cover the entire route before they get back home on Saturday night.

The governor and his party will leave Harrisburg on the state tour at 9 o'clock on Monday morning, October 4. They expect to get into Charleroi in good time Tuesday, October 5. Mr. Hall will precede the party an hour or two as a pilot and to make necessary arrangements for the reception of the party. It is likely that arrangements will be made to meet the touring party at the Washington county line and escort the distinguished visitors through Washington and on to the Allegheny county line by way of Canonsburg.

Governor Brumbaugh's tour will cover six days and 29 counties will be visited on the trip which will extend to every corner of the state. The first night (Monday) will be spent at Bedford; Tuesday night at Pittsburgh; Wednesday night at Altoona; Thursday night at Williamsport; Friday night at Pocomo Summit and Saturday night at Philadelphia where the tour will end. A number of Washington county men will accompany the gubernatorial party.

WOMAN DIES AT HOSPITAL FROM INJURIES RECEIVED ON RAILROAD

Is Struck at Coal Center by Coal
Train—May Have Been Walking on The Railroad.

Mrs. Kasimir Gadwell, aged 55 years, died at the Memorial hospital at Monongahela, at 10 p. m. Thursday evening as the result of injuries received when she was struck by a coal train near Coal Center station Wednesday night. It is not known whether Mrs. Gadwell was waiting at the station for a train or whether she was walking on the track. After she was struck she was rushed in all haste to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela but there it was found that her injuries were so serious to leave little hope of saving her life.

The dead woman was a Lithuanian. She leaves her husband and several children.

CIRCUS CHINAMAN IN THE HOSPITAL

Bailey Troupe First Celestial
Ever Entered Here

Yong Kai, a Chinaman from Canton, China and a dependable performer with the Barnum and Bailey circus has the distinction of being the first Chinese patient ever entered at the Charleroi Monessen hospital. He is suffering with a slight attack of paralysis of the left side.

Yong was removed to the hospital on Wednesday, circus day, after receiving the attention of a local physician. At the time he was scarcely able to walk, his left side being pretty well paralyzed. He explains that he had suffered previous trouble. It is believed he will recover sufficiently to win his discharge from the local institution in two weeks and to enable him to resume his work shortly after.

Yong is 28 years old. He is a Chinaman who performs with a troupe of four with the Barnum and Bailey circus. The troupe does whirling performances while hanging to a wire or rope with their hair. Minus Yong the troupe went through its regular performance at the circus Wednesday and won much applause.

BALLOT TROUBLE IS REPORTED ELSEWHERE

Westmoreland County Has to Have Ballots Reprinted—
Monongahela Precinct Receives Ballots
For Westmoreland Precinct

Unusual mistakes were made in only to find they were from a Westmoreland as well as in Washington county in preparing for the Tuesday primaries, according to the stories now told and vouched for. Every one of the official ballots in Westmoreland had to be hastily returned to the printer's after delivery in order that precincts and districts could be put on. This was done toward the latter part of last week and saved considerable trouble. However it meant the doing over of press work.

Monongahela people had a few interesting experiences. In one precinct some of the ballots were opened, only to find they were from a Westmoreland precinct. Nobody seems to know how they arrived there, but the fact remains that they did arrive. They were returned to the Westmoreland precinct marked "Opened by mistake."

WOODWARD CONFIDENT "JUNEBUG" WILL WIN

Local Driver Will be Arranged at Washington Against Some of the Fastest Drivers of Western End of State.

Washington drivers who will take part in the automobile and motorcycle races to be held at the Arden track at Washington on Saturday, October 2, have already commenced to workout on the course in their machines. There will probably be 10 Washington cars in the events and they are confident that they will be able to win a big share of the purses despite the crack pilots of Western Pennsylvania who have entered. One of the greatest races ever staged in this section is assured in the free-for-all of 25 miles. Keenest of rivalry prevails among Fetterman and Rose, of Pittsburgh; Woodward, of Charleroi; Monohan of Uniontown, and Hudock, of Uniontown and Allison, of Waynesburg, who are the best known of the drivers that will start in this race. Gardner, who drives the Beaver Bullet; Fetterman, a Simplex; Rose, Mercedes, Monohan, a Packard; Hudock, a Buick and Allison, a Thomas, are arrayed against Woodward, who pilots a little Ford. Woodward won the free-for-all at Belle Vernon against this field and they declare that they will beat Woodward's "June Bug" in the race here or go through the fence trying. Woodward is confident that his little car will carry off honors.

SCHOOL TAXES WILL BE COLLECTED BY LAW

Notice is hereby given that all delinquent personal school taxes and all delinquent 1912-13-14 school taxes, by order of the School Board, will be placed in the hands of the School Solicitor for collection and if not paid on or before October 1, suit will be entered and the costs of same added to delinquent.

STOMACH ACHE SPOILS ADVERTISING SCHEME

Stranger With Space in Hymn Book
For Sale Takes Drink of Something,
Which Goes to His Head and Puts End to Business.

Probably for the first time in the history of Charleroi a slight stomach ache this week spoiled completely a neat outside advertising scheme that has caught churches in Monongahela, Donora and Monessen.

The scheme is one arranged it is said by a Cincinnati house. This house agrees to supply churches with a certain number of hymn books of almost any kind, Excell, Rodeheaver, for such according to desire, providing the house is permitted to sell advertising space arranged on pages in the front and back. But in Charleroi the salesman or solicitor became afflicted with stomach ache. He took something for it and that something went to his head. The police thought he was drunk and arrested him. He gave his name as Ed. Smeltz. Burgess Woodward fined him.

Already Smeltz had signed up advertising contracts in Charleroi and arranged to give away some of his hymn books, but the contracts were returned on the ground that his contribution of music stock would not be entirely acceptable. In his pocket he had contracts for some of his books. Also he carried recommendations and explanations from ministers in Monongahela, Donora and Monessen.

in the Results.

The official count of the votes cast at Tuesday's primary was started today. The following have been appointed to make this count: Mark Keeney, A. G. Brader, Jr.; John F. Curran, William Taylor, H. P. McPeake, Joseph L. Myers, J. C. Neill and Don T. Hall. Messrs McPeake and Neill are from Canonsburg. On account of the very close vote between Adams and Brownell, candidates for the nomination for poor director, there will be considerable interest as to just what the official count will show. It is not thought the official count will make much change in the lead that Wickerham has over Miller for the nomination of sheriff.

Different Points to Gather
There in October

MERGED UNIONS PLAN AFFAIR

Following a plan adopted in June when a merger of Charleroi, Donora, Belle Vernon, Monongahela, Monessen and Eldora Women's Christian Temperance Union societies was effected, a rousing meeting will be held in Donora on October 22. A program will be rendered there with representatives of the various societies included in the merger participating. A committee is composed of Mrs. Octave Jacquain, Monongahela, chairman; Mrs. A. J. Marston, Belle Vernon; Mrs. Emma Dawson, Charleroi; Mrs. Daniel Reamer, Monessen and Mrs. Leathers, Donora. The meeting in October will be held at the home of the last named. The following program has been arranged.

Devotion—Mrs. Reamer, Monessen.
Address of Welcome—Mrs. Leathers, Donora.

Response—Mrs. J. J. Luce, Belle Vernon.

Duet—Mrs. Cellers and Mrs. Thomas, Belle Vernon.

Address—"Why I Should Like to Vote," Mrs. Stone, Eldora.

Reading—Mrs. Daniel Harris, Monessen.

Song—Audience, "White Ribbon All Around the World."

Report of State Convention—Mrs. James Stuart, Speers.

Address—"Experiences in Carrying a Remonstrance," Mrs. J. H. McCluskey, Monongahela.

will be sung by Misses Hawthorne and Isabella Dorbritz and Messrs Kinder, James, Dobson and Daniel.

Disappointed Ones May Enter
Battle With Selected
Candidates in November.

RESULTS PLEASE MOST PEOPLE

County and Borough Results Meet
With Much Approval—Republican
Year Admitted, Still Democrats are Planning to Wage Hot Campaign.

Rumors that an independent ticket will be formed to enter the fight on the borough ticket at the general election in November are being heard. Just what candidates the independent ticket would take up is a question.

The backers of the movement are not known, but the talk is originating with friends of some or those who are said to have lost their votes Tuesday through errors in registration or enrollment, a story of which appeared in the Mail Thursday.

It is supposed that in the event of an independent ticket being put in the field, candidates who ran close but were defeated in the primaries would be asked to permit the use of their names. Other candidates in sympathy with the movement would be added to the list. Whether there would be names for all places on the ticket or not is a question. However, the ticket would only be a borough ticket, according to the rumor.

Generally the results of the county and borough primaries were pleasing, though naturally there was some disappointment. Frank B. Wickerham of Monongahela and John O. Watson of Charleroi are picked as especially strong Republican candidates. It is admitted even by some of the leading Democrats that this will be a good Republican year, yet the Democratic candidates are entering the fight gamely. Burgess S. L. Woodward of Charleroi will make a thorough canvass for sheriff and he feels that he stands a chance.

MALTAS PLAN MEMORIAL SERVICES AT MONONGAHELA

Siege of Acre Commandery Knights of Malta, of Monongahela will hold union memorial services next Sunday afternoon, September 26 at 2:30 o'clock. The affair will be held at the Monongahela cemetery if the weather permits. Commanderies from Charleroi, Monessen, Fayette City and Donora will take part in the services. The speaker of the afternoon will be Rev. H. A. MacDonald, of Monessen. A program is being prepared for the service.

The Christian Science Society of Monongahela, announces a Free Lecture on Christian Science to be given in Armory hall. Sunday September 26th, 1915 at 3:00 p. m. by Mr. Frank Bell, C. S., of Harrisburg, Pa. Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. All are cordially invited to attend. 86-12

SUIT FOR HAZING DAMAGES

A Western University has been sued for damages by the father of a young man who lost his life through injuries received while being hazed by students. If responsibility shall be established in this case by a verdict for the plaintiff an important step will have been taken in the abolition of the cowardly hazing practices, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. The administrative authorities of colleges and universities will then take great pains to see that students abstain from hazing, just as they usually keep from other forms of vicious misconduct that would bring the institution into disrepute and thereby injure its reputation and influence.

One hears just now from several directions a note of earnest warning against further adhesion to the practice in some colleges of "treating students as men," and permitting them to follow their own courses by the observance of personal morals and the acquirement of knowledge—that they will not be required to heed any institutional rules designed to be helpful in a religious or moral sense; that there will be no leading string on them; and that, if guilty of misconduct, they will be dismissed and if failures on examination will be denied diplomas.

This laxity of supervision it seems has not been working satisfactorily everywhere. The manhood test breaks down too often. There is a demand for the stricter and severer rules of other days in the protection of guardianship of young men sent from home for the final steps in their education; and there is a sentiment that, if such protection is unattainable in large schools, attended by thousands of students, it may be secured in smaller institutions where watchfulness and responsibility are more readily centered.

But to recur to hazing: This is entirely due to the pernicious personal feeling of class distinctions among students. Break this down with a stern hand, no matter how modified or unimportant the form in which it shows itself, and the practice will end at once.

One of the cleanest cut contests for congress ever waged in this district ended in the nomination of Hon. Henry W. Temple Tuesday. Mr. Temple is a man eminently qualified for the place to which he aspires and to which in all probability he will be elected at the November general election. But so is his opponent, John A. Elliott. The two men were college classmates together, and both are clean cut gentlemen. The Republican party has not gone amiss in nominating former congressman Temple and would not have gone amiss in nominating Attorney Elliott.

The election judges... Citizens see to it that they are registered and entered on the list of the next registration... a timely warning. That a... known Rep. Evan should be registered as a Democrat or Socialist and be compelled to vote that way in order to vote at all, or that the exact should... is somewhat ridiculous. The way to stop such mistakes is to apprehend them before they are made.

try for somebody on the non partisan ballot could tell anything worth while about either. Most lawyers could and that is about all.

John O. Watson, the Republican nominee for county commissioner and Frank B. Wickerham, the Republican nominee for sheriff are two of the cleanest men that the party could nominate for these offices so it is no wonder the people generally are showing their gratification at the results of Tuesday's primaries.

Now a merry fight will begin for heavy vote for woman suffrage a November, and nobody in Pennsylvania need profess any great surprise if the suffrage amendment passes.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A colored man called at Mrs. Baxley's looking for work.

"What is your name?" she asked, after hiring him.

"Mah name is Poe, ma'am," was the answer.

"Poe!" she exclaimed. "Perhaps some of your family worked for Edgar Allan Poe; did they?"

The colored man opened his eyes wide with amazement.

"Why—why, ma'am," he said, as he pointed a dusky finger at himself— "why, Ah am Edgah Allan Poe!"

"I've heard so. But he ain't got no pull."

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case: "Gentlemen:—In January, 1915, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, Wilmington, Del., recommended Eckman's Alternative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." (Abbreviated.) A Mad Round of Pleasure.
It seems as though at times, even in some of the smaller communities, that there are occasions of momentous import.

Every delight of an evening party was experienced by twenty-four couples who last week were privileged to enjoy the proverbial and typical hospitality of Mr. Paul of Blairstown. There was the charm of the lovely home, the wit and infectious repartee of the guests, the dainty service attending an elaborate collation, with exquisite serving by prettily gowned women, and all the other pleasures which combine for an occasion when the varieties of the illustrious game of chess met to pay homage to its shrine. With the pleasures of the chess tables the assemblage lived in an atmosphere of chess. The occasion was one long to be remembered, frequently to be recalled, in fact, a most lasting impression was produced. —Murengo (la.) Republican.

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself." —Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

SOME WILL DISBELIEVE THIS
That Fair Girl Graduate Neglected Familiar Phrase Is Too Much to Take on Faith.

Confronted by eager friends and relatives in the auditorium the fair young girl graduate sallied forth to the center of the platform to deliver her commencement peroration. Everyone expected her to strew the wild flowers of rhetoric around the building with a lavish hand and they were not disappointed. Beginning almost in the Garden of Eden, she brilliantly traced the great events of history and endeavored to point the lesson that each happening should teach. She dragged poor Julius Caesar from his mausoleum and chivalrously jugged him across the Rubicon again, helped Horatio make good his long suit at the bridge and even endeavored to portray where Napoleon Bonaparte had erred.

Coming down the home stretch the talented young lady breezed along under wraps.

"Now, my classmates," she said in conclusion, "we have reached the parting of the ways. We must now show the stuff of which we are made and get out in the world and hustle. Let us put forth all our energies to make our efforts a success, thereby repaying our proud forebears for the many sacrifices they have made that we might be scientifically equipped for the herculean struggle on which we must embark."

With these fitting words, the fair graduate brought her valedictory to a close. And never once did she proclaim to an unsuspecting public that, "Beyond the Alps lies Italy." —New York World.

OUR BIG DAY

Everybody Came to See Us.

In response to recent notices wherein Professor Munyon guaranteed to refund the money in every instance where his remedies fail to give satisfaction, people with all sorts of ailments called for all sorts of his remedies. The big demand, however, seems to be for his Law-Laxative Pills. They're certainly giving satisfaction. One benefited person tells another of their curative qualities, and so the demand increases. Professor Munyon wants us to continue to impress upon every person who suffers with stomach or liver ailments, and particularly all constipated people, to get Law-Laxative Pills. He says they correct indigestion and school the bowels to act every day in a natural way. If you are constipated, it is bad, if you have dizzy spells, if you are nervous and if you have impure blood, get a bottle of these pills with the understanding that if you are not satisfied your money will be returned. No griping, no weakening effect, just a pleasant, natural movement every day. You get well and rest unconsciously. Professor Munyon warns the public against the use of the old-fashioned cathartics, which scour and debilitate. If you have an ache or pain of any kind, you better come in and try one of Munyon's Remedies. Also don't forget that we are carrying his Witch Hazel Soap, the best toilet soap ever sold at 10 cents a cake.

SUIT FOR HAZING DAMAGES

A Western University has been sued for damages by the father of a young man who lost his life through injuries received while being hazed by students. If responsibility shall be established in this case by a verdict for the plaintiff an important step will have been taken in the abolition of the cowardly hazing practices, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. The administrative authorities of colleges and universities will then take great pains to see that students abstain from hazing, just as they usually keep from other forms of vicious misconduct that would bring the institution into disrepute and thereby injure its reputation and influence.

One hears just now from several directions a note of earnest warning against further adhesion to the practice in some colleges of "treating students as men," and permitting them to follow their own courses in the observance of personal morals and the acquirement of knowledge—that they will not be required to heed any institutional rules designed to be helpful in a religious or moral sense; that there will be no leading string on them; and that, if guilty of misconduct, they will be dismissed and if failures on examination will be denied diplomas.

This laxity of supervision it seems has not been working satisfactorily everywhere. The manhood test breaks down, too often. There is a demand for the stricter and severer rules of other days in the protection of guardianship of young men sent from home for the final steps in their education; and there is a sentiment that, if such protection is unattainable in large schools, attended by thousands of students, it may be secured in smaller institutions where watchfulness and responsibility are more readily centered.

But to recur to hazing: This is entirely due to the pernicious personal feeling of class distinctions among students. Break this down with a stern hand, no matter how modified or unimportant the form in which it shows itself, and the practice will end at once.

One of the cleanest cut contests for congress ever waged in this district ended in the nomination of Hon. Henry W. Temple Tuesday. Mr. Temple is a man eminently qualified for the place to which he aspires and to which in all probability he will be elected at the November general election. But so is his opponent, John A. Elliott. The two men were college classmates together, and both are clean cut gentlemen. The Republican party has not gone amiss in nominating former congressman Temple, and would not have gone amiss in nominating Attorney Elliott.

The election judges' ruling that citizens do to it that they are legally registered and entitled at the time of the next registration is a timely warning. That a well known Republican should be registered as a Democrat or Socialist and be compelled to vote that way in order to vote at all, or that the exact should be the case, is somewhat ridiculous. The way to stop such mistakes is to apprehend them before they are made.

Comparatively few voters know anything about the sort of men they are voting for in the upcoming election. True Judges Head and Orlan have served on the superior court bench, but yet how many men out of a few 100 who voted Tuesday for somebody on the non partisan ballot could tell anything worth while about either. Most lawyers could and that is about all.

John O. Watson, the Republican nominee for county commissioner and Frank B. Wickerham, the Republican nominee for sheriff are two of the cleanest men that the party could nominate for these offices so it is no wonder the people generally are showing their gratification at the results of Tuesday's primaries.

Now a merry fight will begin for a heavy vote for woman suffrage a November, and nobody in Pennsylvania need profess any great surprise if the suffrage amendment passes.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A colored man called at Mrs. Baxley's looking for work. "What is your name?" she asked, after hiring him. "Mah name is Poe, ma'am," was the answer. "Poe!" she exclaimed. "Perhaps some of your family worked for Edgar Allen Poe; did they?" The colored man opened his eyes wide with amazement. "Why—why, ma'am," he said, as he pointed a dusky finger at himself—"why, Ah am Edgah Allan Poe!"—Lippincott's.

"That feller Morgan Buttles is terrible unpopular," said one mountaineer.

"We'll have to git rid o' him somehow," replied the old moonshiner. "Yes. But we don't want to do nothin' in a way that ain't legitimate an' customary. You know he has plitical ambitions."

"I've heard so. But he ain't got no pull." "Yes he has. An' you and your relations want to stand back o' me when I put the case up to our congressman. We'll git Buttles appointed a revenue inspector an' then let nature take its course."—Washington Star.

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:—
"Gentlemen:—In January, 1907, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, Wilmington, Del., recommended Eckman's Alternative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." (Abbreviated.)

A Mad Round of Pleasure.

It seems as though at times, even in some of the smaller communities, that there are occasions of momentous import. Every delight of an evening party was experienced by twenty-four couple who last week were privileged to enjoy the proverbial and typical hospitality of Mr. Paul of Blairstown. There was the charm of the lovely home, the wit and infectious repartee of the guests, the dainty service at the elaborate collation, with exquisite serving by prettily gowned women, and all the other pleasures which combine for an occasion when the rosters of the illustrious game of chess met to pay homage to its shrine. With the pleasures of the chess tables the assemblage lived in an atmosphere of chess. The occasion was one long to be remembered, frequently to be recalled, in fact, a most lasting impression was produced.—Marengo (La.) Republican.

Famous Scenes That We Have Missed.
The hall was tastefully decorated with hundreds of tin cans from the condensary, which reflected the shimmering light of a dozen torches loaned by the Teanyson Marching club of this town, the grand march in and out among the lights, making one of the prettiest scenes in the history of the college club's dances.—Exchange.

Luke McLuke Says:

The woman who is always opening her husband's mail and frisking her husband's pockets hunting for trouble is the same dame who wants a divorce every time her husband gets mad at her.

The papers are filled with advertisements that promise you something for nothing. But you will always discover that you will have to kick in with a dollar for every dollar's worth you get. A man may pray to be delivered from temptation, but it is hard to keep from opening one eye and taking a peek at it.

Agree with a man and he will go around telling other men what a sensible fellow you are.

Maybe you don't know it. But there are more low legged girls than there are how legged men.

It doesn't matter how long you have been married, your wife gets just as mad when she sees you talking to a pretty girl as she did when she was first married and didn't have a grain of sense.

Why is it that the man who can't speak grammatically in one language can usually cuss fluently in three or four languages?

Why is it that the man who always wants to let you 100 to 1 that you are wrong never has any money to put up?

Most of the department stores seem to prosper in spite of the fact that it takes a woman three hours to spend 20 cents when she goes shopping.

One sure way to get in bad is to try to please everybody.

A girl can wear other girls' hats and they will fit her. But other girls' shoes are always too large for her.

The law says that a man is innocent until he has been found guilty. But when you absentmindedly wander home with a strange pair of elbow length gloves in your pocket, you will discover that what your wife doesn't know about the law would fill the congressional library.

A man will cheerfully make an affidavit to a thing when he wouldn't bet 10 cents that he was right.

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

SOME WILL DISBELIEVE THIS

That Fair Girl Graduate Neglected Familiar Phrase Is Too Much to Take on Foot.

Confronted by eager friends and relatives in the auditorium the fair young girl graduate sallied forth to the center of the platform to deliver her commencement peroration. Everyone expected her to strew the wild flowers of rhetoric around the building with a lavish hand and they were not disappointed. Beginning almost in the Garden of Eden, she brilliantly traced the great events of history and endeavored to point the lesson that each happening should teach. She dragged poor Julius Caesar from his mausoleum and shamelessly lugged him across the Rubicon again, helped Horatio make good his long suit at the bridge and even endeavored to portray where Napoleon Bonaparte had erred.

Coming down the home stretch the talented young lady breezed along under wraps. "Now, my classmates," she said in conclusion, "we have reached the parting of the ways. We must now show the stuff of which we are made and get out in the world and hustle. Let us put forth all our energies to make our efforts a success, thereby repaying our proud forbears for the many sacrifices they have made that we might be scientifically equipped for the herculean struggle on which we must embark."

With these fitting words, the fair graduate brought her valedictory to a close. And never once did she proclaim to an unsuspecting public that, "Beyond the Alps lies Italy."—New York World.

To the Business Men of Charleroi

The prosperity of a city is in direct proportion to the local pride. Where local pride runs high, prosperity has a firm foothold. Such a town is a good place to live and do business in.

Paint helps to a remarkable degree in spreading an impression of prosperity throughout a community. It gives a fresh, new, inviting look wherever it is used. Municipal buildings, stores and homes feel its good effects. Growing business is bound to be one of the direct results of a liberal use of paint, not from any magic in the paint, but because of the pride which is stimulated.

WE INVITE ALL TO ATTEND

J. W. BERRYMAN & SON

AMONG THE THEATRES

COYLE-CHARLEROI

Travel pictures of tropical countries were produced at the Coyle theatre on Monday night for the first time in the Paramount program. They were particularly interesting, showing scenes of points visited by the motion picture men. Tuesday night was the second Paramount night of the week, with Mary Pickford being starred in the presentation of "Rags." Naturally attractive was this drama if for no other reason than of the opportunity afforded the diminutive Mary Pickford for great dramatic acting. On Wednesday a Metro subject was "When a Woman Loves."

This was an all absorbing narrative of a heart interest story that gripped and held the audience which beheld it. Thursday the third Paramount program of the week included the splendid story "Sold." This was presented by famous players in a manner that brought out the strong points with telling effect.

MAJESTIC-CHARLEROI

One of the truly big features of the week was the picture shown Monday at the Majestic theatre. This was "The Galloper" with Clifton Crawford the popular stage comedian in the leading role. The picture depicted the many trials encountered by a millionaire who posed as a war correspondent in order to be near an acquaintance who had volunteered as a Red Cross nurse, in a conflict between Turkey and Greece. Tuesday the drama "The Money Master" was the featuring picture. In this many scenes which portrayed the happenings of everyday business life, were pictured. Margaret Fisher the popular motion picture actress enacted the stellar role in "Infatuation." Thursday night a variety program was presented, it included an installment of the serial picture "The Diamond from the Sky." "The Woman Hater," and "The Taking of Mustang Pete," a western drama. On Tuesday of next week the attraction will be "The Fixer," a farce comedy taken from the popular stage success "Hellow Bill."

PALACE-CHARLEROI

A good program of motion pictures and vaudeville was presented at the Palace theatre during the past week. Monday the special feature picture was "The Tangle," a drama of society life. Tuesday Julia Swayne Gordon enacted the leading role in "The Tigress." For Wednesday the attraction was "Uncle Bill" with Anita Stewart and Julia Swayne Gordon sharing honors in the most prominent roles. The last three days of the week was taken up with the usual high class vaudeville program. Evelyn Joyce, a clever comedienne proved a big hit with her numerous comedy songs. The second and perhaps the most enjoyable part of the program was a playlet entitled "The Tin Wedding" by Allen and Fowler. The concluding number was the Tuxedo Trio who entertained with comedy singing and yodelling. A number of good features are being announced for next week at the Palace.
